In selling bicycles, however, the regular installment system is not car-ried out, and the agreement between the would-be purchaser and the bicycle dealer is in the form of a lease. The wheel is leased to the purchaser for a certain length of time at a stated rate per month. Mr. Huebner acknowledges the rights of the bicycle men in schring the wheel, but claims they committed larceny in re-taining the attachments, which were his Juvenile Floral Writing Paper120 personal property. It is claimed that wheels are often sold by the Acme Bley-cle and Repair Company that have fixed on them these sundries, which it appears Mr. Husbner purchased separate, and these sundries are charged for in the bill. The express companies are getting ready for the handling of a volume of business that promises to be unprece-TROUBLES OF A. R. HUEBNER dented. Special instructions have been issued to assist the uninformed. Among the points which are emphasized are the following: Claims Attachments on the Wheel

All packages ought to be so packed that the ordinary necessary handling they must have in transportation will not result in the breakage of the contents, The strength of the box or wrapper must always be proportionate to the character or weight of the contents.

All packages should be well tied, and should be plainly marked with marking brush or a strong tag, or a label written or printed with plain, black ink. If there are any old marks or a package they should be thoroughly obliterated.

Company by A. R. Huebner, of No. 7521 Fifth Streets northwest, is vexing a If there are two places of the same name in the same State the name of the county should be given with the address. It is always well to send a letter or postal card of advice by mail notifying the consignee that a package is sent by express.

Packing in the same box matter that might injure another class is unwise. Extra care should be taken in packing glass and fragile articles.

The placing of money in ordinary packages involves a risk. The way to send money by express is to place it in a pack age by itself and take a money receipt for it from the express company.

An important point is the placing on all packages of the name and address of all packages of the name and address of the sender, so that in the event of the consignce not being found at the address named the sender can be notified. Often Christmas presents fall to reach their destination because of the neglect of the ender in ignoring simple precautions.
